Platform has a policy to avoid maturities that are over 25% of drawn debt in any 12-month period. Debt maturities consist of larger capital markets transactions and a number of smaller bank repayments.

